 The subject of this document is the International Police Association (IPA) and its members.
 The IPA is a non-profit organization that was founded in 1949. It is the largest international organization of police officers, with over 100,000 members in over 100 countries.
 The IPA's main purpose is to promote international cooperation between police officers and to improve the standards of police work. It does this by organizing conferences, seminars, and other events. It also publishes a journal and a newsletter.
 The IPA is a member of the United Nations and the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE). It is also a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP).
 The IPA is a very important organization for police officers around the world.
 It is a great way for police officers to stay up-to-date on the latest news and developments in their field. It is also a great way for police officers to meet and learn from their colleagues in other countries.
 If you are a police officer and you are interested in joining the IPA, please contact your local IPA chapter or the IPA Secretariat in Vienna, Austria.
